

If K-Love were to be cut off the air I myself would not listen to anything else. I love that station. I think taking it off the air would only be hurting other people in my community. This is a very positive radio station. More and more people are tuning in to listen.